

Mavericks European Cricket Camp

La Manga, Spain

Monday 24th August – Friday 28th August 2009

Book now for this summer's very best cricket coaching event – Year Two of the Mavericks European Cricket Camp at the fantastic resort of La Manga, Spain.

Join Ian Pont, ECB National & Regional Skills Set Coach in the sunshine to train at Europe's leading sports and leisure resort. This gorgeous part of south-eastern Spain has two artificial grass cricket pitches as well as four full-length practice nets. These brand new, ECB-approved artificial Club Turf pitches have been specifically designed with clubs, leagues and representative sides from the UK and European Cricket Council member countries. These are exceptional for training on, offering good paced wickets with consistent bounce.

La Manga Club is the leading European venue for sport with its outstanding international football pitches and practice facilities, first-class golf, spa and tennis, swimming, fitness, mountain biking, a tantalising selection of restaurants, a dazzling array of nightlife, a choice of luxury accommodation and, perhaps most importantly, an ideal Mediterranean climate that makes it possible to train outdoors in the sunshine all year round. Get tanned, toned and trained!

The unique Mavericks European Cricket Camp focuses on bowling, batting and fielding.

Your 5-day elite cricket camp includes:

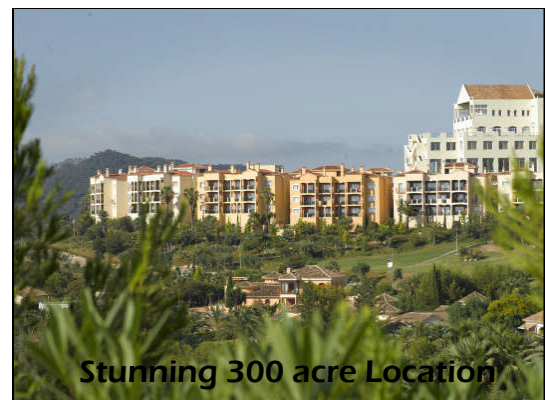

- Full cricket education and video analysis
- Training
- Drills and nets
- Interactive tuition on bowling, batting and fielding
- Lunch and daily refreshments
